

THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN.

The Only Paper Between Galveston, Texas, and Los Angeles, California, that Publishes the Full Dispatches of the Associated Press.

VOL. I.

PHOENIX, FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 29, 1890.

NO. 103

CHEYNEY NOMINATED

The Republican Candidate For Congress.

Nichols and Moore For Joint Councilmen.

A Ringing Platform Adopted That Is Especially Strong on the Mormon Question.

The Republican Territorial Convention, which had been twice adjourned over for a day, again assembled yesterday morning at Patton's Opera House. At 10:20 Secretary Morford, of the Central Committee, called the Convention to order. He said:

"Gentlemen of the Convention, the hour has arrived for the convening of this body as per our adjournment of yesterday. Gentlemen, what is your pleasure?"

Mr. A. G. Bradstreet, of Maricopa, was the first man to obtain the floor, placing in nomination Colonel William Herring for Temporary Chairman in the following neat speech:

"Mr. Chairman: I take the liberty of presenting a name to your consideration for Temporary Chairman. It is a name well known throughout the Territory. The name of the gentleman I shall mention is a man of ability and integrity, and an impartial and intelligent parliamentarian, and would be a credit to any deliberative body in this country, and I hope he will receive the hearty endorsement of this convention. I take great pleasure in placing in nomination for your Temporary Chairman Col. W. Herring, of Cochise county."

This nomination was seconded and carried unanimously. The chair appointed A. G. Bradstreet, of Maricopa, and Hon. J. M. W. Moore, of Yavapai, a Committee to escort Colonel Herring to the chair. Upon being introduced, Colonel Herring spoke as follows:

"It is with great modesty that I greet you this morning after the very flattering statements made by the distinguished gentlemen who placed my name before this Convention. I wish to say to you that any man who stood now in my position, who proceeded to make a speech, would simply distinguish himself for his temerity. We have been so long in getting started and so much retarded in getting in motion, that you will excuse me from making any speech, further than to thank you very kindly for your very unanimous selection of me as temporary chairman. I trust that entire harmony will prevail during this Convention. What is your pleasure?"

Hon. David Henderson then nominated George E. Brown, Esq., of Yavapai, for temporary Secretary, and he was unanimously elected.

Hon. J. M. W. Moore, being recognized by the chair, moved that a committee of one be selected from each county as a committee on credentials.

J. E. Montandon, of Cochise, should not be called to this convention to gether he first read.

The chair: Will Mr. Moore withdraw his motion? Moore: I withdraw the motion.

Chair: I would like to inquire whether the call has received any vote of adoption?

Delegates: No.

Chair: Then we will proceed.

Mr. Montandon: Will the Secretary please read the call?

The call was then read.

J. E. Montandon: I now arise to move that the call be adopted down to and not including the last paragraph.

Judge C. W. Wright: I desire to have that part of the call read including the paragraph proposing the election of the call by the delegates to the convention held by members of the Convention not from the same counties as the proxies.

The Secretary then read the paragraph desired.

Judge Wright: I think that that should be changed because I believe that this Convention should be its own judge of the eligibility of the members of this Convention. One of the principal things I have against that paragraph is that it is so unparliamentary that it would be difficult to tell what it meant to convey. I take it that if we follow strictly the construction of the paragraph only such proxies as were members of the County Convention which nominated them. If this is not changed it will lay down the doctrine as precedence for Territorial Conventions in this Territory that it is necessary not only to elect members to this Convention or appoint proxies to go to this Convention but they must also be members of the County Convention of the county from which they were sent. I know that there are a great many proxies here who will be ruled out by that paragraph.

Mr. Webster Street of Maricopa county responded by saying that he thought that the construction that the gentlemen preceding him had put upon the paragraph was not the correct one, and it was not the construction placed on it by the delegates of Maricopa county, who consider it simply to mean that whoever may be elected to this convention shall himself serve, or not serving, place his proxy in the hands of the delegate from the same county he does serve.

Mr. Brewster Cameron, of Pima, said that it did not seem to him that this was the time to decide this question until the committee on credentials should report.

The chair: The question will not be decided upon until the report of the committee on credentials is passed upon.

Mr. J. M. W. Moore, of Yavapai: I now move that one delegate be selected from each county as a Committee on Credentials. The motion after being duly seconded was put by the Chair and carried.

Mr. E. J. Montandon: I rise to inquire what action has been taken on the motion as to the disposition of this call. Upon motion the call was laid on the table.

Mr. Frank Murphy, of Yavapai: I think it would be well to find out who have a right to vote before we go any further, and it was done wisely to lay the matter on the table. I think that it was the correct place for that motion. Upon motion of Mr. Cameron recess was taken for five minutes.

Immediately after the meeting was called to order, Mr. J. M. W. Moore moved that Herbert Tenney, of Pima county, be elected Assistant Secretary. Mr. Tenney declined upon motion of Wm. O. Neil, of Yavapai county, J. H. Carpenter was made Assistant Secretary.

The different counties then reported the following names as members of the Committee on Credentials:

Maricopa: Webster Street; Pinal: Charles Holburn; Yavapai: Frank Murphy; Pima: Herbert Tenney; Cochise: E. J. Meyer; Yuma: W. H. Blaisdell; Apache: Robert E. Morrison; Graham: Frank Dysart; Gila: E. B. Wentworth.

The name of J. M. W. Moore was placed in nomination as representing Mohave county. As that raised the question of whether he had a right to that proxy, he withdrew.

Jerry Millay, Maricopa: I move from this committee one from each county to be selected to act as a committee on rules and permanent organization.

The chair: The question now is that the Convention now appoint a committee on rules and permanent organization, one member being selected from each county.

G. E. Meeks: We have not yet found out who are entitled to vote; whether Mohave is entitled to a seat on the floor or not.

The chair: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Mr. Meeks: I do not think the gentleman understands the motion. Perhaps I did not express it clearly enough. The motion is that members be appointed from each of the counties for a committee on rules and permanent organization.

Cameron and J. M. Whittier by W. O. Neil proxy, John Davis by W. L. Van Horn proxy, D. M. Riordan by G. H. Haskett proxy, J. E. Brown by S. Haskett and Almer Wade by W. C. Bashford proxy, J. M. Moore, F. M. Murphy, W. O. Neil, W. C. Bashford, Yuma county—F. S. Ingalls, L. A. Hickman, H. Blaisdell, E. B. Waggy, J. H. Taggar, and C. V. Meeden by F. S. Ingalls proxy.

A minority report was presented by George E. Meyer of Cochise, who moved its adoption. Rejected. The majority report was then adopted.

Wm. O. Neil, chairman of the committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business, presented the following report which was adopted.

To the Chairman and members of the Republican Territorial Convention at Phoenix, Arizona, assembled.

GENTLEMEN: Your Committee on Permanent Organization have the honor to report and recommend:

First—That the temporary organization be permanent.

Second—That a committee on platform and resolutions be appointed, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Third—That the selection of a delegate to Congress be by the county.

Fourth—That the selection of a Territorial Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Fifth—That the selection of a Territorial Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Sixth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Seventh—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Eighth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Ninth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Tenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Eleventh—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twelfth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirteenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Fourteenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Fifteenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Sixteenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Seventeenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Eighteenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Nineteenth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twentieth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-first—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-second—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-third—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-fourth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-fifth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-sixth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-seventh—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-eighth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Twenty-ninth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirtieth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-first—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-second—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-third—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-fourth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-fifth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-sixth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-seventh—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-eighth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Thirty-ninth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Fortieth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-first—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-second—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-third—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-fourth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-fifth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-sixth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-seventh—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-eighth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

Forty-ninth—That the nomination of one Joint Central Committee be by the county, such committee to consist of one member from each county, each member to be designated by the county to which he is accredited.

greatest caution in again entrusting the powers of the government to officials elected or appointed by the Democratic party or its rulers, and we direct the attention of the tax payers of the Territory to the fact that the Democratic party is the only party in the Territory that is not in the confidence of the people.

It was one introduced by Judge Wright, of Pima, calling for the appointment of a Court of Claims, to which could be referred all cases of disputed land grant titles in this Territory, and demanding that all suits before said court should be brought against the United States only; and further stipulating that upon judgment against the United States in said court that the claimants be paid by the United States the assessed value of such land and that the settler be by the United States, protected in his rights and possession.

This plank was warmly opposed by the Maricopa county delegation and was withdrawn by the majority in the interest of harmony.

It was then proposed by Delegate Bradstreet, of Maricopa, who offered a motion, seconded by O'Neil, of Yavapai, to have it stricken out. The motion never came to a vote, being slaughtered by a point of order.

The platform was finally passed as amended and the Convention proceeded with the reading of the platform.

The chairman called for nominations for the office of Delegate to Congress, J. E. Montandon, of Cochise, arose and presented the name of George W. Cheyney.

The nomination was seconded in a neat speech by Judge C. W. Wright, of Pima.

There being no further nominations, upon motion Mr. Cheyney was elected by acclamation.

Mr. Cheyney was called forward, and in a short speech he said:

"Gentlemen of the Convention—Notwithstanding the prediction of our friend, the enemy, and probably their wishes, the Republican Territorial Convention is about to complete its labors with the highest unanimity. The leading men from the ten counties of the Territory, representing not only the Republicans of their counties, but also, I believe, the thinking, conservative and business element, have met in Phoenix and conferred with the greatest deliberation and importance to our party and Territory. There has been drawn a platform, which you have heard discussed and finally adopted, in which they have expressed the sentiments that they believed to be those upon which the Republican party of the Territory should advance in the coming campaign."

"The Convention, in fulfilling one of its duties has done me the honor of nominating me to the highest position which the people of this Territory can place upon their ticket. The position of delegate to Congress is one of great importance. It involves great responsibility, and these responsibilities are increasing with the growth and demands of our country. Gentlemen, it is essential that the man who assumes this duty should have the ability, must be, first of all, a Republican. Whether this Convention has been judicious in making its selection, time can only tell. I feel the compliment very much, and thank you sincerely."

The following gentlemen were announced from the different counties as the members of the Territorial Central Committee:

Apache—Alfred Ruiz, James Scott, R. E. Morrison.

Cochise—Montandon, George Meek, Lewis Williams.

Graham—J. M. Thomas, E. A. Cutter, M. J. Egan.

Gila—F. M. Westmeyer, Chas. E. Taylor, J. M. Boardman.

Mohave—C. M. Funston, Wm. H. Hays, G. W. Beecher.

Maricopa—H. L. Wharton, James McMillan, L. Fowler.

Pima—D. Snyder, J. J. Sullivan, I. N. Towne.

Pinal—Geo. E. Evans, C. L. Scribner, W. H. Benson.

Yuma—F. S. Ingalls, H. W. Blaisdell, J. H. Taggart.

Yavapai—W. C. Bashford, Geo. E. Brown, W. G. Stewart.

The chair being informed of the death of the wife of Attorney General Churchill, upon motion to that effect appointed Brewster Cameron, Webster Street and Lincoln Fowler to prepare a resolution of condolence and sympathy.

The Convention, after some discussion as to whether the Convention or the Central Committee should nominate a chairman and secretary for the committee, proceeded to the election of those officers. Frank Murphy nominated Mr. Bashford, as President of the Territorial Central Committee in a short speech, seconded by Henderson, Brewster Cameron moved that he be elected by acclamation. Carried.

Mr. Moore placed in nomination the name of Geo. E. Brown as secretary of that committee. Carried.

Mr. Millay, in a short speech, nominated Mr. Moore, of Yavapai as candidate for joint Councilman from the Northern District. The nomination was seconded by Frank Murphy and N. A. Morford, and passed by acclamation.

Brewster Cameron nominated Frank Nichols, of Cochise as joint Councilman from the Southern District. Nominated by acclamation.

C. Bashford, of Yavapai, presented to the Convention the following resolutions:

Resolved: That this Convention do endorse Hon. C. Murphy, for appointment as Governor of Arizona, whenever any vacancy in the said office may occur, and urge his appointment, as being in line with the home rule doctrine of the Republican party, and for the best interests of the Territory, and that the Chairman and Secretary of this Convention telegraph a copy of this resolution to Secretary Noble.

Mr. Millay introduced a resolution thanking the Maricopa and Phoenix Railroad Company for the courtesies extended to the different delegates in running special trains for them. Carried.